this paper investigates the emerging global landscape for public private co investments in infrastructure the creation of the asian infrastructure investment bank and other so called infrastructure investment platforms are an attempt to tap into the pool of both public and private long term savings in order to channel the latter into much needed infrastructure projects this paper puts these new initiatives into perspective by critically reviewing the literature and experience with public private partnerships in infrastructure it concludes by identifying the main challenges policy makers and other actors will need to confront going forward and to turn infrastructure into an asset class of its own sharia compliance is the raison d etre of islamic banks all of their instruments and activities should be based on sharia principles which unfortunately exposes them to greater risks than their conventional counterparts regulated under the dual banking system in indonesia these include inconsistencies between fatwas unique reputational risks and inefficiencies in the regulatory framework governing islamic banks this book critically examines the less studied issue of developing an islamic banking regulatory and supervisory framework that considers the risk pressures faced by islamic banks operations in an indonesian financial sector dominated by conventional banks the book assesses the extent to which the global financial standards of the basel accords have been followed by islamic banks in indonesia with respect to their regulation supervision and risk management to highlight the unresolved tensions in the multiple regulatory and supervisory institutions the book proposes a middle ground approach that accommodates modification of the existing financial regulatory and supervisory system in line with international best practice the reforms proposed in this book offer a way for financial regulatory and supervisory agencies to further develop modern islamic law and finance the book will be a valuable resource for scholars and policymakers interested in the dual banking system in indonesia øhandbook on islam and economic life is a unique study one of the first of its kind to consider islam within a broader economic sphere covering a wide breadth of topics and research it explores how islam impinges upon and seeks to shape major aspect the european yearbook promotes the scientific study of nineteen european supranational organisations and the oecd each volume contains a detailed survey of the history structure and yearly activities of each organisation and an up to date chart providing a clear overview of the member states of each organisation current inquiries into the political economy of financial policymaking in malaysia tend to focus on the high level drama of crisis politics or simply point to the limited impact of post crisis financial reforms given that politico business relations have remained close in so doing pundits ignore a number of intriguing questions what is the relationship between financial development and financialisation and how has it played out in the malaysian context and more generally how can a country like malaysia become significantly more financially developed yet fail to emancipate the financial system from political control a core element of the financial development discourse to unravel the complexities of this puzzle this book subjects the history and contemporary practices of financial policymaking in malaysia to scrutiny it argues that to understand financial development in malaysia its progress and reversals it is important to conceptualise it as a political rather than a merely technical process in so doing the book echoes a more profound concern in the political economy literature namely the evolving relationship between states and markets and the supposed retreat or reassertion of the state at a time of increasing financial globalisation the book can generate further insights into the evolving role of the state with regard to broader processes of development and marketisation as they relate specifically to finance the book discusses the suk k market its developments and the legal shar ah risks and rating issues facing suk k securitisation as the best way forward for suk k structuring is emphasized and issues such as suk k listing suk k
